

Cegos Partners with Infor to Deliver Customized Human Capital Management Solutions

Infor to Offer Cegos e-learning Solutions

PARIS – May 19, 2015 – Cegos, a worldwide leader in training and development, and Infor, the industry cloud company, today announced a partnership to help organizations optimize professional development with leading learning applications. Through this partnership, Cegos solutions will be packaged with Infor's Human Capital Management suite, combining development planning, learning management and course content. Customers and their employees will optimize learning effectiveness by intelligently matching individual employee development opportunities with content to help them advance their professional abilities.

"We are proud of this new global partnership with Infor. The company's intuitive, attractive, and competitive solutions are a perfect complement to our e-learning solutions," said Pascal Debordes, director, Channels & Alliances, Cegos Group. "Since the beginning of the year, our distribution partner network has grown, and our catalog of e-learning solutions is now distributed by 34 partners around the world. With this new partnership, we hope to continue accelerating our development in the U.S."

The Cegos Group delivers tools for organization to develop talent, educate users on products and/or solutions to boost performance, courses to sharpen job skills, classroom multimedia kits for a wider variety of training methods, self-assessments and quizzes, and a personal online training space. With this partnership, Infor's clients will now have access to a selection of 215 modules available in 18 languages from the Cegos catalog. More precisely, Infor's customers will have access to courses selected by evaluation tools offered by Infor.

"Smart companies recognize the need to interact with staff through a variety of options and channels in order to keep them engaged, informed and ultimately drive productivity and increase operational efficiency across the extended enterprise," said Kenneth Fung, senior director, Strategy, HCM and Learning, Infor. "Through our partnership with Cegos, we can now offer our customers a more comprehensive solution that will optimize learning in support of measurable business results."

About the Cegos Group

Created in 1926, the Cegos Group is a worldwide leader in training and development. The Group now runs its own operations in 11 European, Asian and Latin American countries. It is also active in over 50 countries through its network of partners and distributors, which are all leading training providers and top-tier technology experts.

With 1,000 employees and more than 3,000 partner consultants, the Group trains 250,000 people around the globe every year and generates sales of €200 million (Integrata AG included).

Cegos deploys a global offer, including turnkey and tailored training and development, operational consultancy, Managed Training Services and international training projects. Its “blended learning” approach aims to provide the most suitable and competitive learner experience, by combining multiple learning formats (classroom training, e-learning modules, videoconferences, webcasts, e-training programmes and more).
